

Dear Members of the Admission Committee,

My name is Heather Yang and I am writing to recommend Polina Dashevsky as a candidate for your Master of Management program. As Polina Dashevsky's professor in both Fundamentals of Organization and Leadership Seminar courses, I have had the pleasure of witnessing her collaborative spirit, strong leadership qualities, and critical reasoning skills over the course of the past year.

Polina has demonstrated a keen understanding of core concepts taught in class, as evidenced by her perceptive contributions to class discussions and excellent academic performance. She has also consistently taken the initiative to collaborate with classmates, even assuming leadership roles in group activities and demonstrating effective teamwork. Her active engagement has exhibited a depth of knowledge, curiosity, and genuine passion for the subject matter.

In fact, Polina's passions extend well outside the classroom. Ever since I have known her, Polina has always been very curious about the interrelation of marketing and management. In particular, I know that she has been very involved in her Marketing Society, recently taking on the position of a Project Leader. In this role, she collaborates closely with different startups, assisting them in devising and managing their marketing strategies.

I firmly believe that Polina's success and active participation in and outside my course serve as strong indicators of her potential to excel in the Master of Management program. Her solid foundation in topics such as organizational behavior, managerial leadership, and human relations management, equips her with the necessary knowledge and skills to thrive in the more advanced and specialized coursework that your Master's program offers. I wholeheartedly recommend Polina without reservation.

If you have any questions or would like me to further elaborate on Polina's achievements, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Professor Heather Yang
